

SHILOH ESTHER

Where's my DUCK?

A bubble-bath search game

The duck was right here.

You'll need: your usual bubble bath and a few familiar bath toys. A duck is optional.

Choose toys together. Hide them under foam within the seated child's reach.

Read a card and let the child search. Hide the toys again for another round.

Grown-ups: stay beside the bath. Keep the paper cards dry, outside the water.

SEARCH 1

Where's my duck?

Find the duck, or your chosen bath toy, beneath the bubbles.

NAAMAN SAYS

"He was right here."

SEARCH 2

Just one color

Your grown-up names a toy's color. Find that toy beneath the bubbles.

NAAMAN SAYS

"That is all I remember."

SEARCH 3

One tiny clue

Find a toy your grown-up has left peeking through the bubbles.

NAAMAN SAYS

"Someone is very bad at hiding."

The search continues.

Print pages 2-3 single-sided. Cut around the cards, or leave the sheets whole.
Keep every toy within easy reach. Read Naaman's lines with plenty of outrage.
For the last card, swap roles: the child hides and the grown-up searches.

Grown-ups: stay beside the bath. Keep the paper cards dry, outside the water.

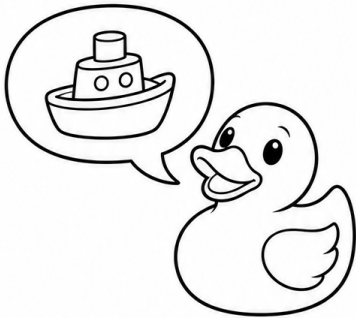

SEARCH 4

Hands only

Feel beneath the bubbles. Name a toy before lifting it out.

NAAMAN SAYS

"Are you absolutely certain?"

SEARCH 5

Listen for the clue

Your grown-up describes a hidden toy. Find it beneath the bubbles.

NAAMAN SAYS

"I would recognize him anywhere."

SEARCH 6

Your turn to hide

Hide a toy beneath the bubbles. Give your grown-up one clue.

NAAMAN SAYS

"Now where has everything gone?"

MISSING MY DUCK

He was RIGHT HERE.

Help me look beneath the bubbles.

Hold this poster beside the bath to start the search. Keep it dry.